Summary

I am a hard working individual with a strong sense of ambition and drive. I firmly believe in setting goals for myself and pushing myself to achieve them. I refuse to settle for anything less than my best and am always striving to go above and beyond.

Experience

Food Runner

Cucina Enoteca • Irvine, CA

12/2023 - Present

My job consists of delivering food orders from the kitchen to customers tables rapidly and accurately. Acting as the point of contact between Front of the House and Back of the House staff. Communicating food orders to chefs, paying attention to priorities (e.g. food allergies). It is also my responsibility to maintain the cleanliness of the expo line, organization of order tickets, and communicate effectively with BOH team and ensure that guests have a positive experience.

Seasonal Fulfillment

Target • Irvine, CA

10/2023 - 02/2024

The fulfillment team picks, preps, packs, sorts, and ships products safely, efficiently and effectively to deliver convenience and quality for our guests.

Operations Associate

The Rinks • Tustin, CA

08/2023 - 12/2023

The Operations Associate is responsible for performing the daily activities required to operate the Rink facility (Ice or Inline), including all aspects of customer service, cash handling, and skate guard during public sessions. I was also assigned to one or more of the following areas during my shift: Skate Counter, Snack Bar, Skate Guard, Scorekeeper, and Party Host.

Food runner Take out Service Assistant

BJ's Restaurant & Brewer • Anaheim Hills, CA

03/2020 - 08/2023

As a food runner, my main duties involve delivering food orders from the kitchen to the customers' table in a timely and efficient manner. I am responsible for ensuring that all the dishes are presented correctly and promptly to the customers while maintaining a high level of service quality. Additionally, I assist the servers in ensuring that the dining area is clean and tidy and that all the necessary condiments and utensils are readily available for the customers. I take great care to ensure that all the food is delivered at the correct temperature and that any special requests or dietary restrictions are accommodated. As a food runner, I understand that my role is instrumental in creating a positive dining experience for the customers, and I take this responsibility very seriously.

Cashier/Sales Associate

Champs Sporting Goods • Irvine, CA

03/2020 - 04/2022

As a cashier/sales associate, my main duties involve assisting customers with their purchases and ensuring that all transactions are processed accurately and efficiently. I am responsible for handling cash, credit, and debit card transactions, and for maintaining accurate records of all sales. Additionally, I assist customers in locating products, provide information on pricing and availability, and help maintain a clean and organized store environment. I understand that my role is instrumental in providing excellent customer service and ensuring a positive shopping experience for all customers.
