SKILLS

From experiences from my past jobs I can provide Good Communication, Memorization, Adaptability, as well as Teamwork and Interpersonal Skills

EXPERIENCE

Mein - Server

September 2023 - December 2023

- Working as a server at a super popular and busy Chinese restaurant requires a unique set of skills honed to navigate the fast-paced and bustling environment. First and foremost, exceptional multitasking abilities are essential to manage multiple tables efficiently while ensuring each guest receives prompt and attentive service. A strong grasp of the menu, including knowledge of traditional Chinese dishes and ingredients, is crucial for accurately taking orders and making recommendations tailored to individual preferences. Adaptability is key when faced with sudden rushes or special dietary requests, requiring quick thinking and problem-solving skills to ensure a seamless dining experience for patrons. Effective communication skills are paramount for liaising between the kitchen and guests, ensuring orders are delivered accurately and promptly.

Top Sushi - Server

November 2022 - July 2023

- Serving sushi in this environment requires servers to be well-versed in the variety of rolls, sashimi, and nigiri that are available, as well as the sauces and condiments that go with them. It's important to communicate well with clients so that you can help them navigate the menu, make recommendations, and make sure any dietary needs or restrictions are met. In addition, servers must be skilled at managing several tables, navigating dynamic and fast-paced surroundings, and delivering effective service. Developing a relationship with patrons, attending to their requirements, and preserving an upbeat and welcoming attitude all help to make a meal experience that they will remember, improving their pleasure and the restaurant's image.

Happy Lemon - Bobarista

June 2022 – October 2022

- Create customer connections to maintain long-term sales. Memorizing official and off menu preparation to serve all customer beverage desires. Take orders at the counter and make tea, coffee and other drinks to customers specification. Duties also include operating cash registers and credit card machines.

ReveMoto – Quality Control

June 2021 – June 2022

- Inspectors engage in manufacturing companies and department shops to verify that the products being manufactured or sold fulfill consumer expectations. They examine equipment to ensure they satisfy quality standards before evaluating the final product.

Crazy Pho Cajun – Summer Job

May 2020 – August 2020

- Takes orders, answers concerns about the menu and food, provides the restaurant's food and beverages, collects payments, communicates orders with the kitchen staff, seats customers, and aids with customer service and cleaning..

GOALS

My name is Damion Nguyen and I am a dedicated college student currently enrolled at the University of Houston, pursuing a major in Kinesiology. My academic path is a reflection of my love for learning about the complexities of human mobility and the science that supports it. My long-term objective, driven by a desire to make a positive impact in the healthcare industry, is to enroll in medical school with an emphasis on sports medicine or chiropractor. I have a foundation in anatomy, physiology, and exercise science thanks to my schooling, which has also helped me get ready for the challenges of working in the medical field. I am sharpening not only my academic talents but also building leadership, teamwork, and communication abilities that will help me in my future aspirations through active involvement in school organizations and extracurricular activities. I can't wait to use my training and life experiences to further the healthcare industry.
