PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dedicated and motivated individual with a diverse international background, I am Zeina Hayajneh. Having spent 12 formative years in Saudi Arabia, I made the decision to relocate in pursuit of superior educational opportunities. My commitment to academic excellence led me through Woodbridge High School, and I am currently enrolled at Irvine Valley College (IVC). Driven by a passion for personal and professional development, I am enthusiastic about contributing to my community and fostering a spirit of independence. As I progress through my academic journey, I am eager to leverage my experiences and skills to make meaningful contributions in the evolving landscape of education and beyond.
